5. Criteria for Determination of Materiality of Events / Information

Materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on the specific facts and circumstances relating to the event / information. A particular event / information would be considered as material in nature if it satisfies either of the criteria proposed below:

- a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- c) in case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event / information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material.

If particular information or event in question satisfies any of the above mentioned criteria, the Company would be under an obligation to disclose the same to the stock exchange.

6. Authority for Determining Materiality of Events / Information & Disclosures

The Whole Time Director & Executive Chairman, Managing Director, Company Secretary & Compliance Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company (collectively known as 'Authorised KMPs') shall be jointly / severally authorised for determining materiality of event / information, classify it as a material event / information, decide the appropriate time at which disclosure is to be filed with the stock exchange and details that may be filed in the best interest of present and potential investors.

The Authorised KMPs shall determine the credibility to the information and / or event and once the information / event has been set out in stone to a level of concretization, the information would be disclosed by the Company in a timely manner.

In case any Functional Head becomes aware of some material information about the Company, the said Functional Head would contact any one of the Authorised KMPs, who would then determine whether the information requires disclosure to the stock exchanges or not in accordance with provisions of SEBI LODR.

In some cases, to ascertain materiality thresholds, the Authorised KMPs, shall frame their opinion on a case to case basis, based on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information / event and while doing so, it may consider, among other factors, the following factors:

- whether there would any direct or indirect impact on the reputation of the Company; or
 - whether non-disclosure can lead to creation of false market in the securities of the Company;
- or
- whether there would be a significant impact on the operations or performance of the Company.

While disclosing any event / information to stock exchange under SEBI LODR, the Company shall ensure that such disclosure is in consonance with the Company's "Code of Practices and Procedures for Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information."

7. Website Updation / Updates to Stock Exchanges

The Company shall update all disclosures made under the regulations to the stock exchanges in its website and shall be continued to be hosted in the website for a minimum period of five years and thereafter archived as per the Preservation of Documents / Archival Policy of the Company.

8. Authority to the KMPs
